(a) The Finance Committee shall present an annual budget to the National Convention for approval. Revenue shall be derived from annual dues and such other sources as may be approved by the Executive Committee.

(b) The following provisions shall govern the establishment and administration of the budget of AMVETS National Ladies Auxiliary:

1. In the determination of a dues income figure to be used for budgetary purposes in any fiscal year, the Finance Committee shall not include, and the National Convention shall not approve, any sum in excess in the amount derived by the actual number of annual members as of July 31 multiplied by the National Department portion of the dues as established for the budget year and interest income derived from the life membership trust fund. Life membership income shall be allowed in the amount of a $5.00 per life member annual transfer from the life membership and the $50.00 per new or renewed to life received before the July 31 date as established above. Income from any sources other than membership shall be established and included in any proposed budget based on actual income from similar sources realized as of July 31 of the current year. Revenues resulting from properly executed contracts that contain performance bond clauses or equivalent that are ratified by the National Finance Committee and the National Executive Committee prior to July 31 of the current fiscal year may be utilized for budget development by AMVETS National Ladies Auxiliary in the following fiscal year. Reasonable assurances should exist that such income will be realized. The annual budget shall be divided into the following sections: Administration; National Officers Expenses; National President Expenses, Miscellaneous and Publication. The expenditures of each shall be itemized. The final budget shall be based on eighty five (85) percent of the anticipated income and upon adoption, shall be the expenditure guide for the fiscal year.

2. The National Convention Operating Budget will be prepared by the Finance Committee and presented by the Treasurer with an itemized list of proposed income and expenses to be approved at the Post Convention NEC meeting.
3. In no case shall the National Finance Committee or any other Body of the National organization be permitted to adopt or approve a budget in which the expenses, provisions for capital expenditures and provisions for debt reduction exceed the income established above. National expense categories may be adjusted within the category subject to approval of the National Finance Committee.
4. Any officer or employee who violates any provision of this section shall, in addition to other disciplinary action taken, be financially liable for any amount spent that exceeds the budget appropriations unless such excess had prior approval of the National Finance Committee. Any salary or expense money due or to become due to any officer or employee may be retained by the organization to offset all or any part of the unauthorized over-expenditure.

SECTION 3: The Finance Committee shall consist of six (6) members. Members of the Finance Committee shall be allowed one night room rate as published by National Headquarters at the NEC, and two nights room rate as published by National Headquarters for National Convention. Members shall receive (1) one night for internal audit for membership, quartermaster and donations and (1) one night for the finance committee and budget preparation.

Such action shall be presented by the Department chairman and subject to a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Convention.
13. At least fifty percent (50%) of registered Delegates must be present on the floor of the Convention to constitute a quorum.
14. Campaign posters shall not be permitted in the Convention meeting room. Such posters and signs may be permitted as each individual hotel may designate. Campaign literature will be permitted outside of the Convention meeting room and/or distribution on Department tables at least one-half (1/2) hour prior to the opening of sessions as printed in the Convention agenda.
15. Discussion of personal grievances, Local problems or claims concerning an individual with respect to her personal interests, shall not be permitted on the Convention floor.
16. Nominations for office shall be the first order of business on Friday, and election shall be on Saturday, at a time specified on the Convention Agenda.
17. The Convention Rules may be changed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the authorized delegates on the Convention floor.

ELECTION RULES

1. All Delegates and Alternates must be in good standing and meet the requirements as established and set forth in the Constitution.
2. When an accredited Delegate is absent from the room during the election, her accredited Alternate, if present, may cast her vote. This vote, as announced by the Chairman of the delegation will be accepted unless there is objection, in which case, the presiding officer will order the delegation polled.
3. On roll call voting, each Department shall be entitled to the number of votes of the accredited Delegates or Alternates voting in place of Delegates that are present in the Convention hall.
4. Each office shall be voted on separately. If a candidate is elected, her name shall be dropped from other offices for which she has been nominated.
5. Nominating speeches and the election of National Officers will be in the following order:

First Vice President
Second Vice President
Third Vice President
Treasurer
Americanism Officer
Scholarship Officer
Chaplain
Sergeant-At-Arms
National President

6. Nominating speeches shall be limited to five (5) minutes. Seconding speeches, if any, shall be limited to two (2) minutes.
7. Election of all offices shall be by majority vote. In the event there are three (3) or more candidates for any office and no candidate receives a majority vote on the first ballot, the candidate receiving the least number of votes will be dropped from the ballot and balloting will continue until one (1) of the candidates shall have received a majority vote.

8. All Delegates and Alternates shall remain in the Convention hall until the election is completed. No one will be admitted to the Convention hall until the election is completed. No one will be admitted to the Convention hall during the actual voting; however, at the discretion of the presiding officer, admission may be granted in the interval between voting for different officers and, in cases of emergency, Delegates may be permitted to leave the room. If there is no Alternate present to replace the Delegate, the individual vote is forfeited. The presiding officer will, in all instances, announce the change in voting strength and the number necessary to elect, eliminating "passes" and "abstaining" votes.

9. National Officers and Chairmen shall sit with their respective delegations during election of officers, thereby casting their vote with their delegation.

10. At the time of the election, voting members shall be separated from non-voting members and guests.

11. The presiding officer shall appoint two (2) Tellers and a Recorder from the non-voting members. The presiding officer shall announce the voting results.

12. The Election Rules may be changed by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the authorized delegates on the Convention floor.
